INDEX OF SUBJECTS AND AUTHORS.
VOL. XXIII.

Abducens, Traumatic Paralysis of the, 361
Albuminuria, Ophthalmia from, 199
Anatomy, Report on, 205, 332, 478
Announcements, 246
Anomalies of Refraction and Accommodation, Report on, 208, 336, 479
Appointments, 513
Astigmatism, Note on the Action of the Oblique Muscles in, 276; Lenticular Accommodative, 337; Operation to Correct, 9; the Ophthalmometer in Tests for, 50
AXENFELD, Rupture of the Retina, 119

BATES, a Suggestion for an Operation to Correct Astigmatism, 9
BAXTER, a New Phorometer Slide, 38
BELLARMINOFF, a Rare Case of Retinitis Pigmentosa Complicated with Glaucoma, 257
BERNHEIMER, a Contribution to the Study of the Congenital Malformations of the Eye, 270
Blindness, Causes of, in Ontario, 14
Book Notices, 242, 510
BROSE, Two Cases of Electrical Flashing Followed by Severe Retinal Irritation and Intense Pain, 124
BUMSTEAD, a New Centring Instrument, 88

CARTER, Case of Rare and Fatal Disease of Infancy with Symmetrical Changes in the Yellow Spot, 126
Cataract, Case of Black, 186; Discussion on Extraction of, at Edinburgh, 1894, 456; Historic Reminiscences Concerning, 187, 209; Morphine as a Means to Prevent Prolapse of Iris after Simple Extraction of, 85; On Corneal Suture in the Extraction of, 421; Report of 549 Extractions of, 153; Statistics of Extractions of, 350
Choked Disc, Causes of, 354
Choroid, Case of Metastatic Adeno-Carcinoma of the, 105; Carcinoma of the, 109; Case of Coloboma of the, with Hyaloid Artery, 307; Report on Diseases of the, 176, 222, 347, 494
Cocaine, Death Following the Use of, 331
COGGIN, Papilloma in the Sclero-Corneal Region, 23
Conjunctiva, Cornea, Sclera, Anterior Chamber, Report on Diseases of the, 216, 343, 488

DE BECK, Addenda to an Article on a Family History of Coloboma of the Iris (March, 1886), 264
DUANE, Paralysis of the Superior Rectus and its Bearing on the Theory of Muscular Insufficiency, 61

DUNN, Case of Complete Destruction of Both Lachrymal Ducts, 285

Editorial Notice, 516
Electricity, Injury to the Eyes from a Heavy Charge of, 34; Two Cases of Flashing of, Followed by Severe Eye Pain and Retinal Irritation, 124
ELSCHNIG, Foreign Body Tolerated in the Background of the Eye, 163
Epithelioma of Cornea Cured by Sublimate Injections, 318
Exenteration, Operation for Covering Orbit after, 338
Exophthalmus Due to Orbital Hemorrhage, 142
Eyes, Deviation of the, Associated with Otorrhœa, 504
Eye Cysts, Report of Cases of, 201

FISHER, Extraction of Chips of Iron from the Vitreous, 165
Foreign Body Tolerated in the Background of the Eye, 163, 166, 172
FRIEDENWALD, Traumatic Paralysis of the Abducens Nerve, 403
FRIEDENWALD and CRAWFORD, Exophthalmus Due to Orbital Hemorrhage, 142.

General Pathology, Diagnosis, and Therapy, 201, 325
GIFFORD, Minor Plastic Operations about the Eye, 18
Glaucoma, Caused by the Use of Cocaine, 180; Discussion on, at the Rome Congress of 1894, 314; Report on, 177, 222, 347, 495
Gout, Eye Diseases in, 506
GRŒNOUW, Is there Co-Excitation of Homonymous Sections of the Visual Field such as Schiele has Described? 287

Heart Disease and Affections of the Eye, 308
HEDDAEUS, On Unilateral Reflex Iridoplegia, 1
HELMHOLTZ, Obituary Notice of, 514
Herpes of the Conjunctiva, 218
HILDEBRAND, Sixty-six Magnet Operations, with Successful Extraction of Particles of Iron from the Interior of the Eye in Fifty-three Cases, 167
HOLDEN, On Tests of the Light Sense of the Periphery of the Retina, for Diagnostic Purposes, 40
HOSCH, Foreign Body Encapsuled in the Retina with Preservation of Vision, 166
Hyaloid Artery, Case of Persistent, 307
Hysterical Diseases of the Eye, 322, 353

Injuries, Foreign Bodies, etc., Report on, 193, 236, 356, 502
Instrument, a New, for Centring, 88
Instruments and Remedies, Report on, 202, 328, 476
Iodoform Poisoning, Optic Neuritis from, 233
Iridoplegia, On Reflex Unilateral, 1
Iris, Coloboma of the, 264; Pearly Tumor of the, 346; Report on Diseases of the, 221, 346, 492
Iritis, Rare Forms of, 177

JACKSON, a Triple Rotary Variable Prism, 115
JAESCHE, Two Peculiar Cases of well-known Diseases of the Retina: Embolism of Central Retinal Artery, and Retinal Detachment, 300

KALT, On the Corneal Suture in Cataract Extraction, 421.
KAMOCKI, Case of Metastatic Adeno-Carcinoma of the Choroid, 105
Keratoplasty, New Results, 313
KNAPP, On the Tolerance of Foreign Bodies in the Background of the Eye, 172

KOSTENITSCH, Case of Scleritis with Microscopic Examination, 416

Lachrymal Apparatus, Report on Diseases of the, 211, 339, 483
Lachrymal Ducts, Case of Destruction of Both, 285
Lachrymal Sac, Congenital, Bilateral, and Congenital Fistulæ of the, 25
Lens, Report on Diseases of the, in 1893, 184, 224, 349, 498
Leprosy in the Eye, 359
Lid, Cortical Centre for Elevation of the Upper, 335
Lids, Report on Diseases of the, 200, 337, 482
Literature, Report on General Ophthalmological, 200, 324, 473

Magnet, Papers on the Use of the, in Injuries of Eye, etc. 311; Sixty-Six Operations with the, for Foreign Bodies in the Eye, Resulting Successfully in Fifty-three Cases, 167
Malformations, Contribution to the Study of, in the Eye, 270
"Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital Reports," 244
Mercury, Oil of the Biniodide of, 330; Sub-Conjunctival Use of Cyanide of, in Deep-Seated Eye Diseases, 202
MICHEL, "Clinical Guide to Ophthalmology," 243
Muscles and Nerves, Report on Diseases of the, 212, 339, 483
Myopia, Cure of, by Removing the Lens, 209, 226, 317, 465; the Results of Treatment and the Optical Correction of Ametropia in the Correction of, 247

NOYES, "A New Text-Book on Diseases of the Eye," 244
NIEDEN, "Miners' Nystagmus," 245

Ocular Disturbances with General Constitutional Affections, Report on, 195, 236, 257, 503
Œdema of All Four Eyelids, 468
Ophthalmia, External Use of Quinine, in Blennorrhoic, 30
Ophthalmoplegia Totalis, 239
Optic Nerve, Changes in, after Arterio-Sclerosis, 233; Report on Diseases of the, 192, 232, 353, 501; Some Cases of Trouble of the, 282; Studies in the Pathology of the, 131, 426; Tumors of the, 355.
Orbit and Neighboring Cavities, Report on Diseases of the, 214, 341, 486
OSBORNE, The Causes of Blindness in Ontario, 14

PANAS, "Traités des Maladies des Yeux," Notice of, 473, 510
Panophthalmitis, Meningitis and Death Following Enucleation after, 329
Papilloma in Sclero-Corneal Region, 23
Paralysis of External Rectus after a Basal Fracture, 198
Penetration of Eye with Preservation of Sight, 349
Periodic Blindness, 190
Phorometer, a New Slide for the, 38
Phthisis Bulbi, Relief of, by Local Use of Quinine, 223
Physiology, Report on, 206, 333, 479
Plastic Operations, Minor, about the Eye, 18
Prism, a Triple, Rotary, Variable, 115
PURTSCHER, Traumatic Paralysis of the Abducens Nerve, 361

Quinine Blindness, 235

RAEHLMAN, Critical Comparison of Leber's Theory of Detachment of the Retina with the Diffusion Theory, 92
Refractive Value of Any Two Cylinders, 28
REICH-HOLLENDER, The External Use of Quinine in Blennorrhoic Ophthalmia, 30

Report of the Eighth International Ophthalmological Congress at Edinburgh, August, 1894, 455
Report of the Ophthalmological Section of the Eleventh International Medical Congress at Rome in 1894, 309
Retina, Critical Comparison of Leber's Theory of, Detachment of the, with the Diffusion Theory, 92; Cure of Detachment of, by Massage, 313; Foreign Body Encapsuled in the, with Preservation of Vision, 166; Rare Case of Detachment of the, 306; Rare Case of Embolism of Central Artery of the, 300, 318; Rupture of the, 119; Tests of the Light Sense of the Periphery of the, 40; Thrombo-Phlebitis of Central Artery of the, 445
Retina and Functional Disturbances; Report on, 189, 229, 352, 499
Retinitis Pigmentosa, a Rare Case of, Complicated with Glaucoma, 257
Retinoscopy, with a Stenopæic Disc, 345
Risley, The Results of Treatment, and the Optical Correction of Ametropia in Arresting the Increase of Myopia, 247
Rivers, Injury to the Eyes from a Heavy Charge of Electricity, 34

Sachs, Further Anatomical and Clinical Contributions to the Study of Central Scotomata in Affections of the Optic Nerve. 426; Studies in the Pathology of the Optic Nerve, 131
Savage, "New Truths in Ophthalmology," 242
Schöler, Report of 549 Cataract Extractions, 153
Schultze, Case of Metastatic Carcinoma of the Choroid, 109
Scleritis, Case of, with Microscopic Examination, 416
Scopolamin, Use of, in Eye Diseases, 204
Scotomata, Studies Regarding Central, in Affections of the Optic Nerve, 426
Simulation, Cases of, 232
Sizeranne, "Through Blind Eyes," 245
Smith, Eugene, Morphine Hypodermatically as a Means to Prevent Prolapse of Iris in Simple Extraction, 85
Stephenson, "Ophthalmic Nursing," 242
Strabismus, Causation of, 212; the Vision before and after Operations for, 319
Stricker, Case of Persistent Hyaloid Artery and Coloboma of the Choroid, 307
Sublimate, Sub-Conjunctival Use of, in Choroiditis and other Deep-Seated Eye Diseases, 179, 202-4, 313, 460, 464
Superior Rectus, Paralysis of the, and its Bearing on the Theory of Muscular Insufficiency, 61
Sympathetic Inflammation Excited by Use of Artificial Eye on a Tender Stump, 221
Sympathetic Ophthalmia, Report on, in Year 1893, 179, 223, 348, 496
Sympathetic Ophthalmitis after Sarcoma of Globe, 468
Syphilis and Eye Diseases, 196, 239, 352, 358, 505
Systematic Reports on the Progress of Ophthalmology in the First Half of the Year 1893, 324, 473

Teeth and Reflex Diseases of the Eye, 192, 354
"The Refractionist," 246
Thomson, Some Cases of Optic Nerve Trouble, 282
Tiffany, "Anomalies of Refraction and of the Muscles of the Eyes," 244
Trephining for Loss of Sight, 190
Tuberculosis of Eye, 312

VAN FLEET, Astigmatism and the Ophthalmometer, 50
Visual Field, Is there Co-Excitation of Homonymous Sections of the, as Described by Schiele? 287
Vitreous, Extraction of Chips of Iron from the, 165; Report on Diseases of the, 184, 349, 497

WEILAND, Note on the Article "Refractive Value of Any Two Cylinders," (in these ARCHIVES, Oct., 1893), 28
WILSON, Note on the Action of the Oblique Muscles in Astigmatism, 276
WOOD, Congenital, Bilateral, and Symmetrically Placed Fistulæ of the Lachrymal Sac, 25
WUERDEMANN, Case of Thrombo-Phlebitis of the Central Retinal Artery, with Necropsy, 445

Yellow Spot, Case of Rare and Fatal Disease of Infancy with Symmetrical Changes at the, 126
